Approve the on-site
Superintendent interview
format per policies
1903 & 1905

The Trustees' discussed the format for conducting the interviews. The topics of having people attend on-site or virtually and whether candidates needed to wear masks the whole time were discussed. Trustee June stated that she felt all people that were on-site needed masks on all of the time. Trustee Huczek said he felt that candidates should be allowed to remove their masks during their interview but have them on the remainder of the time.

Motion to approve the interview format to be on-site for the candidates, five trustees, district clerk, administrative secretary, and two teachers, with public access via google meets, unless a person requested on-site access, masks need to be worn by all participants, with candidates being allowed to remove during their interviews:

Motion: Trustee Huczek

Seconded: Trustee Atkins–passed 4-1
